

Xanthos Chytas

Born and raised in Thessaloniki. He studied Journalism and Radio/Television Production Management at North College, specializing in digital technology and New Media. He has been active in journalism since 1990.

He has worked at ERT – ERT3 since 1992.

From 1992 to the present, he has worked as a reporter, news program presenter, news anchor, editor-in-chief of news programs, magazine director in Thessaloniki, correspondent for ERT1, and has taken part in assignments throughout Greece and abroad.

From 2004 to 2006, he served as Head of Radio News at ERT3.

From 2006 to 2010, he was Director of Radio at ERT3. During this period, he developed international collaborations with the State Radios of Romania, Bulgaria, and Cyprus.

From 2011 to 2013, he was Administrative Advisor for Regional Development at ERT3.

Editor-in-Chief of News Programs at ERT3 since 2016.

Editor-in-Chief of News Bulletins at ERT3 since 2019.

Since September 2021, he has been Head of Regional News and Reporting at ERT3.

He has had a notable presence in social issues, organizing events on environmental awareness and leading a road safety campaign in collaboration with the Ministry of Transport.

In 2009, he received an honorary award from the Kilkis Police Directorate for his contribution to road safety.

He has been a member of the Journalists' Union of Macedonia–Thrace Daily Newspapers (ESIEMTH) since September 1999.