

Andreas Fiorentinos

Andreas Fiorentinos was born in Mykonos, in 1963.

He is a third-generation hotelier, and he has extensive experience in the tourism and administrative sectors.

He graduated from Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, FL, with a major in International Business and a minor in Political Science.

Furthermore, he has served in the following capacities:

Deputy Secretary General at the Greek National Tourism Organization from September 2012 to February 2014.

Vice President of the Hellenic Chamber of Hotels, Secretary-General of the Hellenic Hotel Federation and President of the Mykonos Hoteliers Association.

He has served as the head of the tourism sector for the NEA DIMOKRATIA political party since February 2021.

He is fluent in English. He is married and a father of three children.